Summer Session

June 10, 1946 - August 30, 1946

Examinations: August 29-30, 1946

Credit hours earned during the Summer Session may be counted toward a degree. Courses are offered in both elementary and advanced law subjects.

The Summer Session should prove of advantage (1) to students beginning the study of law, and (2) to advanced students who wish to relieve their schedules during the regular scholastic year.

The tuition charge for the Summer Session is $10.00 per semester hour of credit. There is a $5.00 matriculation fee, payable on first registration, by beginning students.
